ROMIE BURNETT

Romie Burnett, a lad of sixteen years, died at the home of his mother at Ferney on Saturday, July 9, and funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. W. Zech, at the lodge hall in Ferney, on Monday. The boy had suffered for some time with spinal trouble resulting from a fall, and a cancerous formation had developed. For several weeks prior to his death he was totally blind, and suffered greatly.

He was born at Alma, Wis., January 5, 1888. His father, Frank Burnett, died at Ferney about a year and a half ago. Besides his mother, three brothers and two sisters survive him. There was a large attendance at the funeral, including relatives of the family from Wisconsin. The body was laid to rest in the Ferney cemetery.
